

Command Antivirus

AV-Test results: December 2011

Results of the performance testing of Commtouch (previously Authentium) Command Antivirus are presented below. The testing was performed by AV-Test GmbH on the anti-malware engine version 5.3.9. (Command Anti-Malware 5).

The December results are as follows:

- Of the 28 products that were tested, the Command engine placed 2nd
- Command detection rate: 99.88%
- Minimum detection rate of all products tested: 58.16%
- Maximum detection rate of all products tested: 99.98%
- Average detection rate of all products tested: 95.16%
- Median detection rate of all products tested: 98.30%

These values are mapped on the axis below.

ABOUT AV-TEST

The testing was performed by AV-Test GmbH, a leading service provider for IT security testing and consultancy services operating worldwide. AV-Test has more than 15 years of experience in the area of antivirus research and data security. Each year AV-Test GmbH performs more than 2,500 product tests of anti-virus, anti-spyware, personal firewalls and related products on behalf of vendors, integrators (OEM), corporate users and magazines.

For more information contact your sales representative at Commtouch (contact details are provided below) or visit the Commtouch web site at www.commtouch.com.